

National Council of Jewish Women
Greater Rochester Section

WHEN:

April 6, 2016, 7 PM

WHERE:

Temple B'rith Kodesh
2131 Elmwood Ave.
Rochester, NY 14618

ADMISSION: Free and open to the public.

Registration is requested:

www.ncjwgrs.org or email
barbara@grosh.net

Temple B'rith Kodesh is handicapped-accessible.

Sign language interpretation is available if requested when registering by March 23.

"Repairing the Planet-- Starting in the Flower City"

The time to stop climate change is short. This program on transitioning from fossil fuels to clean energy will offer hope about work that is being done locally, a way to connect with others, and an opportunity to learn about policy issues. Please join us.

Panelists:

Dr. Susan Spencer, ROCSPOT (Rochester Solar Power Organizational Team)

Vanessa Rule, Mothers Out Front

Mark Dunlea, Green Education and Legal Fund

Moderator: Scott Fybush, WXXI

Co-Sponsoring Groups

- Hosting Sponsor: Temple B'rith Kodesh Women of Reform Judaism
- Citizens' Climate Lobby
- Congregation Etz Chaim
- Congregation Beth Sholom Sisterhood
- First Unitarian Church Social Justice Council
- Greater Rochester NOW
- Interfaith Impact of NYS
- Jewish Community Center of Greater Rochester
- Jewish Family Service of Rochester
- Jewish Federation of Greater Rochester
- League of Women Voters - Rochester Metro
- Mothers Out Front
- Pachamama Rochester
- Rochester Area Community Foundation
- Rochester Chapter of Hadassah
- Rochester People's Climate Coalition
- Rochester Regional Group of the Sierra Club
- Temple Beth David
- Temple Sinai Women's Chavurah